

WCGS volunteers have spent many hours documenting these burials, and researching and writing the histories of the cemeteries. We appreciate you visiting our website and are happy that we may be able to help you in your research. We only ask that you cite the WCGS as your source when you enter this information in another website or when you publish it in any other way.

Old Independence Cemetery

Latitude 30° 19' 42"N - Longitude 96° 21' 39"W
8675 Coles Rd

Abandoned for many years, this beautiful old historical cemetery, is now well kept and shaded by giant cedar trees. Many stones have been lost or broken, however. a very old graveyard of Anglo-Texas. Started about 1823 on league of Judge J. P. Cole, one of the "Old 300" in the Austin Colony. A daughter, Madora Cole McCrocklin, gave the site. Many statesmen, educators, physicians, lawyers, war veterans and other "Old Texians" are buried here.
