

WCGS volunteers have spent many hours documenting these burials, and researching and writing the histories of the cemeteries. We appreciate you visiting our website and are happy that we may be able to help you in your research. We only ask that you cite the WCGS as your source when you enter this information in another website or when you publish it in any other way.

Flat Prairie Cemetery

(aka: Zion Hill Cemetery) [2005, Revisited 2010]

Latitude 30° 16' 16" - Longitude 96° 37' 05"

Located near McCain Creek Park and Somerville Lake on Ben Tap Ln. near Fischer Rd behind the Zion Hill Baptist Church

On May 15, 1886, J. W. Elliott sold 1 acre of land to Alfred Francis, Tobe Jordan and Wade Newsome, Trustees, to be "exclusively used for the erection thereon of a colored Missionary Baptist Church house and the occupancy of the same as a Missionary Baptist Church and the further consideration that the northwest half of said lot may be used for the erection of a Temperance Hall and its occupancy by such society." On July 14, 1886, J. W. Elliott conveyed to Lafayette Kirk, County Judge of Washington County, ½ acre of land in the D. B. Friar League for "the good of the Educational Cause of the Colored Race". It is unknown exactly when the Flat Prairie Cemetery property was deeded to be used as a burial ground for those in the community. In a deed dated June 18, 1914, there is a reference to "4 9/10 acres sold for school, church, and grave yard purposes for the colored people". It is very likely that the property for the grave yard was also acquired in 1886, since the oldest tombstone found was that of Asa Moses in November of 1889.
